Is the TCA X-Change easy to use?

It is a very user friendly and streamlined web site.

From the home page, you can access most of the site's features.

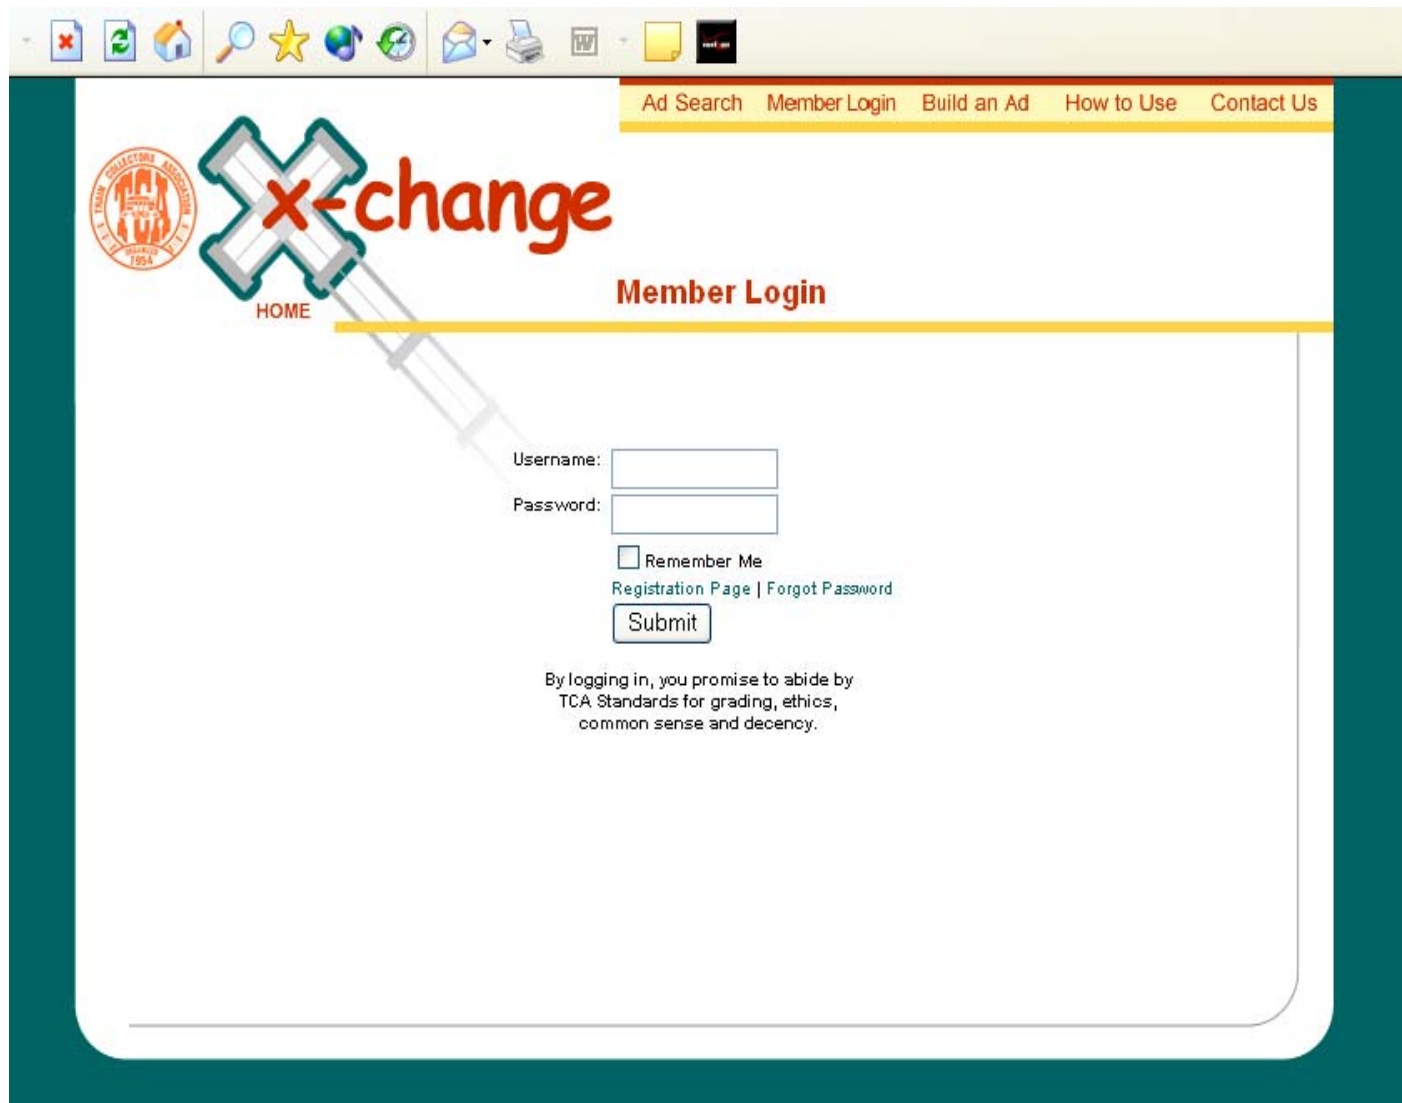

Here is a view of the home page:

The screenshot shows the TCA X-Change website home page. At the top, a navigation bar contains links for Ad Search, Member Login, Build an Ad, How to Use, and Contact Us. The main header features a large 'x-change' logo with a stylized 'x' and the text 'x-change' in red. Below the logo is the TCA logo, which includes the text 'THE TRAIN COLLECTORS ASSOCIATION' and 'ORGANIZED 1954'. Underneath the TCA logo is the text 'Serving Train Collectors and Operators Worldwide.' To the right of the logo is a collection of various model trains. Below the trains are four red buttons: 'Ad Postings in Last 24 Hours', 'Items for Sale', 'Items Wanted to Buy', and 'Items for Trade'. At the bottom of the page, a red banner reads 'Welcome to the TCA x-change!' and a yellow banner reads 'The Place to Buy, Sell and Trade, Toy, Scale and Model Trains.' Below these banners is a navigation bar with links for TCA Sites Gateway, TCAmembers, Toy Train Museum, Toy Trains Mailing List, and e-Train Magazine. At the very bottom, there is a small text line: 'This page requires Macromedia Flash Player for ideal viewing. Click here to download this player.' followed by links for TCA HOME and PRIVACY POLICY.

From the home page above, you can click on the links and icons to get to virtually all features of the site. At the bottom of the home page there is a tool bar to navigate to everything else the TCA has to offer.

What if I forget my Password?

On the Member Login page click the link Forgot Password just above the Submit button. This will take you to a page where you can enter your user name or TCA number. A new password will be generated and sent to your email address on file. You can then change the password to one of your choosing.

How do I change my password?

Please refer to “How do I manage my account?” for this information.

How do I browse the site?

Browsing is easy. You can start right from the home page.

There you can click on one of four large icons:

Using those links will take you to all the ads available on the site. If you want to look for a specific item you can refine your search. To refine your search for specific items, manufacturers, or eras, click ad search. You will arrive at “Detailed Search”

Below is a view of the upper right corner of the home page. These links take you to the TCA-X-Change utilities.

How does Detailed Search work?

On the screen below you can see several boxes called drop down menus.

With these menus you select the era, manufacturer, condition, and type of item you would specifically like to look for.

As an example, the user has set the page to search for:

Lionel Postwar 2322 diesel locomotive in any condition, and with or without a box.

Why can't I see the contact information for the seller in the ad I have open?

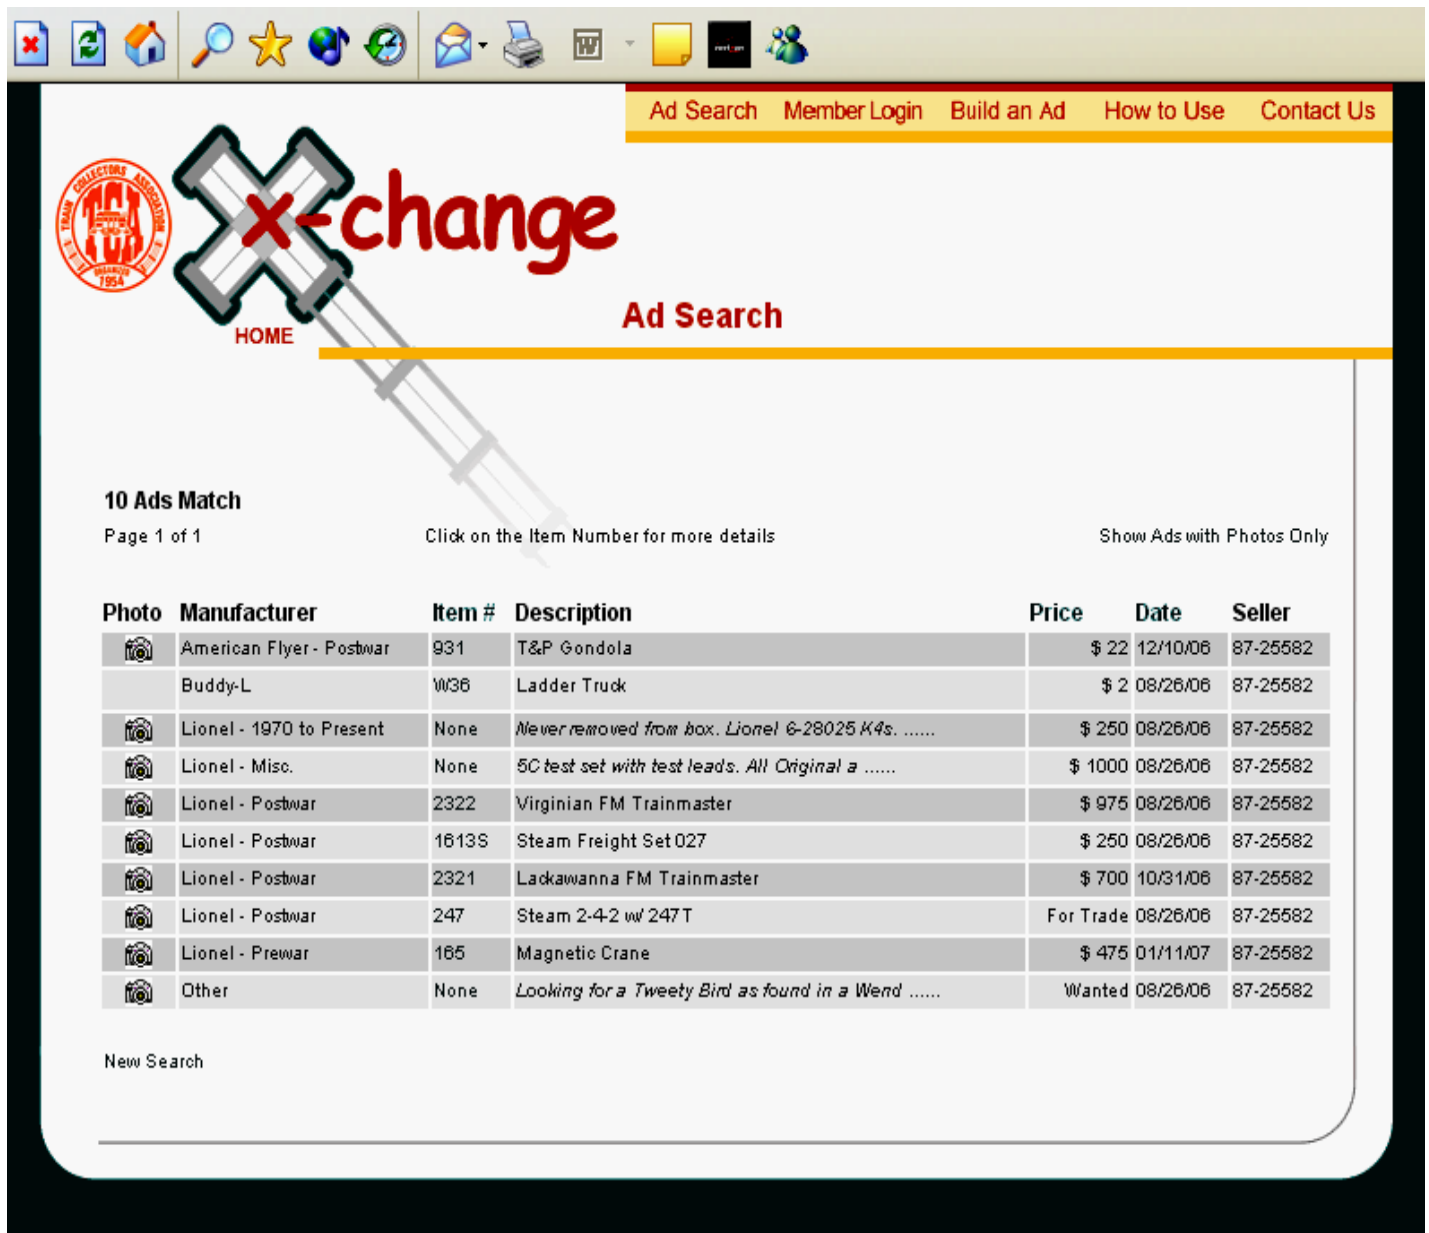

Note that in the ad displayed in the above example, you cannot see the seller's name and contact information. Only TCA members with a user name and password for the TCA X-Change are able to see the ad's contact info.

Is it possible to only view the items offered by just one seller?

Yes. Look at the previous screen image and you will see a link to click:

Other Ads by This Seller. Clicking that link will take you to a grid of only that specific member's items. The sample screen below displays 10 items from one seller.

All items are displayed whether for sale, wanted, or trade.

The screenshot shows the X-change website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Ad Search, Member Login, Build an Ad, How to Use, and Contact Us. The main header features the X-change logo and the text "Ad Search". Below the header, it indicates "10 Ads Match" and "Page 1 of 1". A table lists 10 items for sale, trade, or wanted. ## How do I use Keyword Search?

Below is the detailed search page again.

When using Key Word Search you can search by item number, manufacturer, member number, description, etc.

This time the user has decided to use the Keyword Search feature and has typed "Lionel"

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the X-change website. The browser's address bar shows the URL "http://www.x-change.com". The website's navigation bar includes links for "Ad Search", "Member Login", "Build an Ad", "How to Use", and "Contact Us". The main content area is titled "Detailed Search" and features a "Keyword Search" section. In this section, the search box contains the text "lionel" and a "Search" button. A green arrow points to the "Search" button. Below the "Keyword Search" section is the "Detail Search" section, which includes several dropdown menus for "Type of Ad", "Era", "Type of Item", "Manufacturer", "Box/Paper", and "Condition", all set to "Any". There is also an "Item Number" text box and a "Show Ads with photo's only" checkbox. A "Search" button is located at the bottom of the "Detail Search" section. A green arrow points to the "Search" button in the "Keyword Search" section. At the bottom of the page, there is a footnote: "* For a definition of these grading standards click here."

Clicking the Search button next to the Keyword Search box brings up a grid of all Lionel items as was selected:

How do I contact a seller or purchase an item?

It is important to remember that only TCA members can conduct transactions using the TCA X-Change. Only TCA members can access privileged information on this site.

When a TCA member is logged in and clicks on an item to see its description, he or she will see the personal contact information associated with the ad.

Just like in the print version of the Interchange Point in the National Headquarters News, a person has the option to call, write, or email the TCA member who posted the ad.

Below is a view of an ad with contact information, as it would appear to a TCA member that has logged onto the TCA X-Change. Note contact information to the right. You can email the seller directly from the ad by clicking on the email address located with the contact info.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the TCA X-Change website. The browser's address bar and toolbar are visible at the top. The website has a navigation menu with links for Ad Search, Member Login, Build an Ad, How to Use, and Contact Us. The main content area features a large 'X-change' logo and a 'HOME' button. Below the logo, there are navigation links for Home, Ad Search, Build an Ad, Edit Ads, My Account, and Logout. The main listing is for a Lionel Postwar locomotive, with detailed information including TCA Number, Ad Type, Manufacturer, Period, Item #, Item Type, Condition, and Box/Paper. Contact information for Paul Olekson is provided on the right, including Name, Street, City, State, Phone, and Email. A note at the bottom of the listing provides a link for more information on grading standards.

How many ads can I post on the TCA X-Change?

You can place a maximum of 100 ads.

Will my ad also appear in the National Headquarters News?

Yes, your ad may simultaneously appear in the Interchange Point section of the NHN if you choose to do so.

This will give your item exposure not only on line, but also in printed form, which is mailed to all TCA members.

Is there a limit to how many ads can appear in the NHN?

You can select up to 12 ads that can run simultaneously in print and on line.

How long will my ad run on the TCA X-Change?

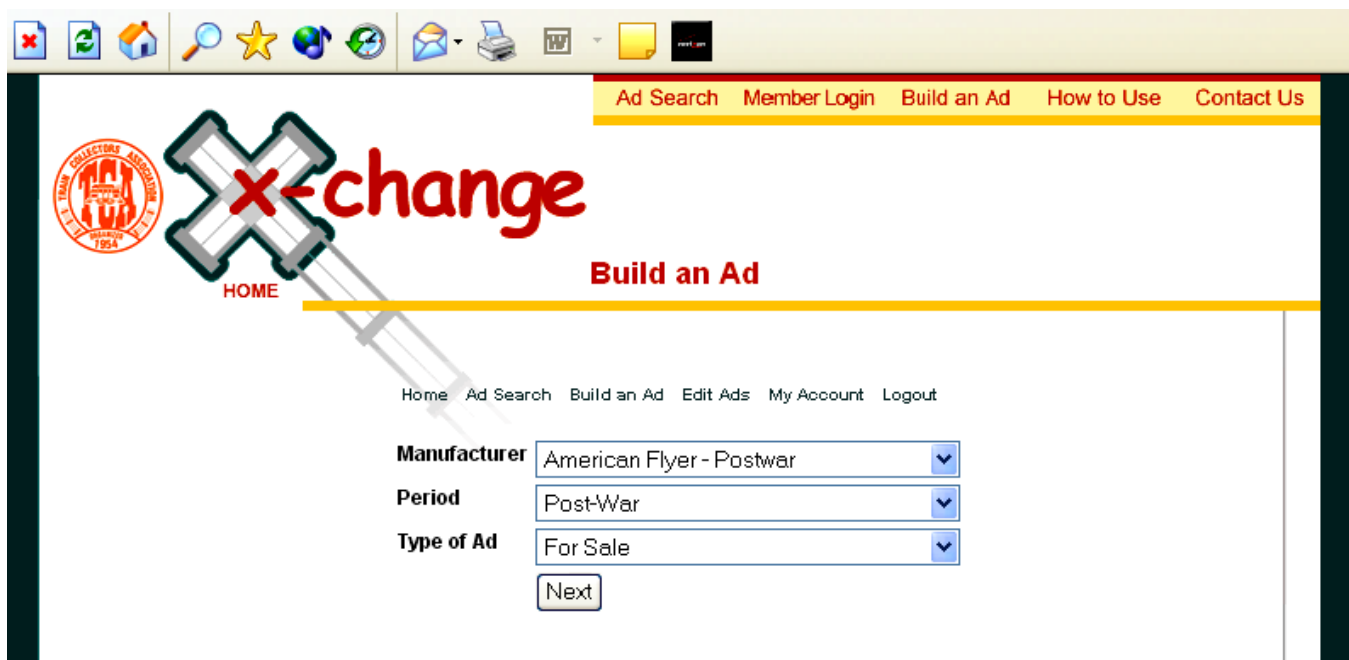

You choose 30, 60, or 90 days.

Members are responsible to delete their own ads when an item is sold, bought, or traded.

How do I create an ad?

From any page on the web site just click on the link Build an Ad

The first of several pages will appear.

On this page you select the manufacturer, the period or era (prewar, postwar, etc,) and the Type of Ad (for sale, wanted, or trade.)

Then click on the “Next” button and you arrive at the Item Detail page. On this page you will be able to use drop down menus to select the item number, item type, condition, and box preferences. The TCA-X-Change provides you with access to the toy train database of the TCA. This provides the TCA member with a quick and efficient way of listing an item with an accurate item number and description.

In the Notes box, all details specific to your item can be included with your ad. Use this space to tell us if your item is a variation, includes extras, or anything else you feel will help describe the item in your ad.

If you intend to include photos with your ad, click on the check box to indicate this. When you complete the Item Details page you will be directed to the Upload Photos Page.

Print Ad in the Interchange Point: Here you select “Yes” or “No” to indicate whether or not your ad will also simultaneously appear in print in the National Headquarters News. You can select up to 12 ads to run simultaneously in print and on line.(See more info about this on the previous page)

The last step on this page before you click “Save This Ad” is to decide how long your ad will run. You can choose 30, 60, or 90 days.

After you click “Save this Ad” the Upload Photos Page will be displayed if you checked the box to include photos with your ad.

How many Photos can I include with an ad?

Up to three. Photo size is limited to 950 kb per photo. Members are responsible for following the instructions for sizing photos that accompany their particular digital camera or scanner.

How do I upload photos?

Here is a view of the Upload Photos Page:

Notice that the ad description is included on this page. This is to help you place the correct photos with the corresponding ad.

If you know the file name where your item’s photo is stored, enter it on this page.

Most likely, you will want to use the browse button to locate the photo in your computer.

After selecting the file, click “Upload”.

You will then be given a chance to view the selected photo and upload another.

When finished uploading photos, (max 3) click: Done, Return to Main Edit Page and you will be able to view all your ads in grid format.

Can I place an ad now and decide to include photos later?

Yes, and it is easy to do. See the instructions on how to edit your ad and photos.

Can I edit my ad at any time?

Ads can be edited and photos can be added or changed for a period of ten days from when an ad is placed. After the tenth day only the price of an item can be changed.
